Sligo Foodie Tour

The Sligo Foodie Tour is brought to you by Anthony Gray, well known for powering the local food revolution in his native Sligo. This tour takes you into the heart of Sligo town to experience exquisite culinary delights from Sligo's award-winning chefs.

The Sligo Foodie Tour brings you on a culinary tasting, which is unique and the experience changes on each tour. Discover lively locals in a vibrant neighbourhood with a rich cultural and architectural heritage.

Join your friends and embark on 2.5 hr walking tour of Sligo's finest gastronomy establishments visiting 7 venues sampling the freshest local produce. You will have the opportunity to discover and indulge in both the local inspired dishes as well as the myriad of local delights including desserts, local craft beers, oysters and foods from the West of Ireland. You will leave with a stomach full of traditional food, plus local knowledge and sightseeing tips, to enhance the pleasure. The tour is about getting together and sharing food, drink, experiences and stories. There is no better way to explore Sligo than through its hospitality industry in good company. This will stay in your memory forever. You will learn the story of Sligo Food and the ever-changing melting pot of flavours and culture along with award winning recipes that tell Sligo's story. Where to capture great music or simply breath-taking scenery that we have in abundance here in beautiful Sligo. This is a walking food tour on which 'craic agus ceol' (fun & music) is the dish of the day.
